The energetic measures taken by the British Government are solely due to Germany's hostile attitude. The British press unanimously approves of Government's action and states that England should give the world to understand that she will not tolerate any meddling in her colonial affairs.

Some organs advise Government to immediately cancel the concession granted to the Chartered Company, declaring that once England cancels the concession she will be able to deal properly with Germany.

The London Stock Exchange closed to-day with all stocks at low prices. American and English railway shares are almost paralysed.

Telegrams from Johannesburg state that work in the mines is at a standstill.

It is rumoured that the Army Reserve and Militia will be called out. Two regiments of regulars besides several regiments from India will be immediately shipped to the Cape.

The Times of this morning says that, although England has many foreign questions on hand at present, none of them are very serious and that they will all be settled pacifically.

A telegram from Sir Hercules Robinson to Mr. Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary, states that the revolutionary party in Johannesburg, yesterday laid down their arms, and that the crisis has terminated.

President Krüger has issued orders for the delivery on the Natal frontier to Sir Hercules Robinson of Dr. Jameson and his companions taken prisoner in the recent combat. Dr. Jameson had already been condemned to death.

The British squadron anchored in the port of Cape Town has received orders to leave for Delagoa Bay.

The German Ambassador Count Hatzfeld-Wildenburg held this afternoon a lengthy interview with Lord Salisbury in reference to the Transvaal imbroglio. All that is generally known is that the Count condemned in strong terms the language employed by the German Press when discussing the pending situation in South Africa.

There is but little doubt that President Krüger demands an enormous pecuniary indemnity for the recent violation of Transvaal territory. He also demands the exile from British possesions in South Africa of Dr. Jameson and of the ex-Prime Minister Sir Cecil Rhodes. It is not yet known what reply will be vouch safed him to these pretensions, by her Majesty's Government. Telegrams from Cape Town represent the crisis as terminated.

France

Paris, 8th—M. Lockroy, Minister of Marine, has decided on great naval works to strengthen the port of Rochefort (?) on the Atlantic, and they will be commenced as soon as possible.

Germany

Berlin, 8th—The German press is alarmed at the extraordinary excitement of the British public and tries to smooth matters by stating that Emperor William's telegram was purely a friendly missive and was not prompted by political motives.

Austria

Vienna 8th—There was a rumour that Premier Goluchowsky would shortly go to Rome to confer with Crispi about the present situation of Europe, but the report has been officially denied.

The major portion of the Austrian Press makes common cause with that of Germany in its open hostility to England in reference to her foreign policy.

Russia

St. Petersburg, 8th—A furious storm has been raging in the Black Sea since yesterday, doing great damage. Many shipwrecks with loss of life are reported.

Italy

Rome, 8th—Political uneasiness is increasing in Italy, and a partial change in the Cabinet is considered inevitable.

Great discord has been provoked amongst the Masonic lodges of the Kingdom in consequence of the appointment of the new Grand Master to replace Adriano Lemmi who recently resigned that post.

According to news received from Kassala, Osma Digna has depatched a small force to strengthen the garrison of Elfascer.

Spain

Madrid, 8th—A telegram from General Campos states that the Spanish troops routed the rebels near Havannah.

The capitulation of the Spanish garrison of Hoyo Colorado is confirmed.

Notwithstanding official denials, the resignation by General Martinez Campos of his command in Cuba is looked on as certain and rumour already points to General Weyler or General Polavieja as his probable successor.

The latest advices from Havana state that the rebels continue to advance in the north of the Province of Piñar del Rio and that Gomez has reached Alquizar.

Turkey.

Constantinople, 8th—The Zeitoun insurgents have consented to treat for peace and hostilities have been temporarily suspended.

United States

Washington, 8th—The naval-committee of the Senate decided this afternoon to recommend a considerable increase in the fleet. It is believed that Congress will act on the suggestion.

Brazil

Rio Janeiro, 8th—In an interview held between Dr. Carvalho the Chilian Minister and a reporter of a Rio newspaper on the recent commercial treaty between Brazil and Chile, Dr. Carvalho declared everything will be done by the Brazilian Government to foment trade with Chile, and that the present arrangements would be followed by other similar ones.

Exchange on London is quoted at 9/1 16.

Prices of wheat are quoted between 5.65 and 6.75. Linseed is quoted at 10.60 to 10.90.

THE RAILWAY GUARANTEES.

The debate in the Chamber of Deputies on this most important subject has revealed an opposition to the Minister's scheme which few of us anticipated, and which will not be relished by our friends in London.

It is unnecessary to go over the details of Dr. Zorrilla's measure now under discussion, as we have on many previous occasions explained them. The bill was discussed, opposed, and finally passed in the Senate, now it comes up before the Deputies, where it was generally supposed, having passed the Senate, it would have been at once sanctioned: but it seems we all counted without our host in this business; and from the tenor of Tuesday's debate it would appear that Sr. Don Rufino Varela, who leads the opposition, has raised a very serious point which the Minister will find it difficult to get over, and which if triumphant must necessarily postpone the bill till the next session.

For the last three or four years the National Government has been trying one way or the other to settle this Railway Guarantee Question. Dr. Zapata, when Minister of the Interior, did his best to arrange it; on his retirement from office Dr. Quintana, as Minister of the Interior, and who is regarded as the best railway lawyer in the republic, tried his hand. Then Came Dr. Terry, who was supposed to have cut the Gordian Knot by naming an Inspection Committee to go over all the accounts of the various railways, and report on the actual amounts due by the railways to the Government, and by the Government to the railways.

This Railway Inspection Committee worked and toiled and laboured for about 2½ years and finally sent in its report to the Government, but which report it seems has never yet been published.

When the bill came up for discussion on Tuesday, Deputy Varela asked tor the publication of the report, so that the House before it voted on the bill could find out if the Government owed the Railway Companies 40 millions gold dollars or not. This led to an animated discussion between the Minister and Sr. Varela. The Minister asked if it was proposed to publish all these antecedents which would fill over 1000 pages, and the study of which will hold till 1900. Deputy Varela tartly replied that there was a great blunder somewhere in the whole business, as the Minister had just said the two millions voted by Congress was only one half what the guarantees amount to. Mr. Varela asserted that the two millions voted for 1895, and the 2 millions voted for 1896 represent 90 per cent of what the Government should pay for guarantees, and he was prepared to prove it. The Minister sharply replied that Mr. Varela could prove nothing of the kind. To which Mr. Varela replied that the House would soon see for itself, but that he required the report of tho Railway Inspection Committee should be first published and distributed amongst the Deputies. He opposed the proposed arrangements, as he considered it most injurious to the credit and interests of the country. He therefore demanded that the report in question be published.

The Minister of the Interior again remarked that the publication of the repor would be a tedious affair; fully 2000 pages, and requiring at the least two years to study. Deputy Varela replied that the very objections raised by the Minister supported his motion. If the Minister required so much time to study 2000 pages of a report, how could be ask him to discuss and vote on the measure without first reading the report? He had looked everywhere for data on the subject and could find nothing, and the report of the Railway Board, which ought to be published, would not be ready for another month. It was then decided to postpone the discussion until the next day, and the House ordered the report in question to be printed and distributed.

THE TRANSVAAL STORM.

The news in from Europe last night has astonished us all in the River Plate, and bears out the truth of our remark on the New Year, that in casting the horoscope of 1896, that which is most certain to happen is the unexpected. That a handful of Boers should provoke a row that convulses the world, the stock exchanges and the European Cabinets seems incredible, yet there is no mistaking the telegrams. England is throwing troops from Bombay into South Africa: not satisfied with this, she has ordered out a squadron the like of which never before sailed from the British shores; three of her war vessels in the squadron ordered off are of 14,000 tons each: 35,000 volunteers and militia have been called into active service, and worst of all, there has been a crash on the London Stock Exchange, tumbling every share and stock in the market, even to Consols—and all for what? Verily the very name of Jameson is fatal to the worlds's peace. Jameson's whiskey and Jameson's filibustering are on a parity as disturbing elements.

As yet we have to learn which side Argentines will take in this unexpected rumpus. None of the papers have as yet taken sides, but Argentines are far more English than German in their sentiments, and they all say:

England, with all thy faults, we love thee still.

The state of things in Africa is so imperfectly known, not only here, but in England, that we all have to read up much to comprehend how within a few days' sail of London they are selling young girls at 5, each, to be resold to the English miners and soldiers of the Chartered Company. The ferocious incidents of decapitation and mutilation of male and female prisoners [in Ashantee under the very nose of the English Governor at Cape Coast Castle has at last aroused such indignation that a powerful expedition left England last month for the avowed object of exterminating these barbarians and annexing Ashantee.

As regards the Transvaal Boers, people can form their own opinion of their Government and their laws from the following:—

"In the African Critic of last month Mr. H. Hess says:—

"I print a detailed summary of the case against the Boers in regard to their treatment of natives within the Transvaal. It has been supplied by the editor-in-charge of my Johannesburg paper, Mr. Gustave Hallé, son of the late Sir Charles Hallé. For the information of my readers in Europe it is necessary to state that Mr. Gustave Hallé is a gentleman in whose honour and probity I have entire confidence, of which the fact that I delegated to him the responsible editorship of the Johannesburg Critic during my absence in England is the best proof. Mr. Hallé's record in South Africa has been one of which any man might be proud, and his career has been, and promises to be in the future, a brilliant one. In short, Mr. Gustavo Hallé is a worthy son of a worthy father. The evidence in support of the allegations contained in Mr. Hallé's report is now in my possession, and will be laid before the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, in his official capacity as the Secretary of State for the Colonies, without delay."

In the course of his report Mr. Hallé says:—

"I maintain that the facts hereinafter laid down prove that the habitual attitude of the Traansvaal Boers towards the three-quarters of a million of natives handed over to them by her Majesty's Government in 1884 is that of a master-race to a set of beings entirely dependent (without appeal) on their decision as to what is justifiable in their treatment of them, and that, owing to the fact that the Boers of the Transvaal have been for 200 years at constant warfare with the natives of South Africa, and have during that period opposed, and do still steadily oppose, the advance of European civilization, their idea of what is justifiable towards the natives of this country is at one with that entertained by Europeans in the old slave-trading days, but is not compatible with the idea of civilization of the present day, and is not to be endured.

"Mr. Hallé, among numerous other points, states that "the habit of shooting under flags of truce and firing on and killing native women had grown so general during the Malabock campaign that Commandant-General Joubert was compelled to issue a general order sternly prohibiting either practice, and decreeing penalties"; and that "the capture of Magoeba was attended by the most ferocious incidents of decapitation and mutilation of male and female prisoners."

Queen Victoria has sent a letter to Emperor William the Second to None, giving him a piece of her mind for having sent a telegram of congratulation to President Krueger.

It is stated that General Joubert, Chief of the Boerish Army, has ordered the arrest of all the members of the Reformist Party.

Tho Berliner Tageblatt states that Dr. W. J. Leyds, Secretary of the South African Republic, was very satisfied with the audience granted to him by Emperor William. He immediately despatched a cypher telegram to President Krueger, advising him of all that was said during the audience.

The South African Parliament has congratulated President Krueger on his defeating the English marauders.

The Italian public and press censure Emperor William for the telegram he sent to President Krueger. The Corriere di Napoli declares that Emperor William's conduct in the African Question places Italy and Austria in a very difficult situation.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

HALO ROUND THE MOON.

(From our own Correspondent)

"Do look" say the children, "there is such a funny ring round the moon". "Wind and wet my dear" says the prophetic "pater familias"—"and observe the moon is sailing in an oasis of blue sky. The ring is wide; therefore we know by observation that we may have fair weather for two or three days but the storm must come infallibly." This is what we all saw last Saturday night, and sure enough on Wednesday came the hurricane, the rain and the sleet. The Political sky is now in much the same condition. Profound quiet reigns, just with a little rumour this afternoon that the Sultan has yielded on the guardship question, with the usual tag, that the concert of the powers is intact. So much the better: but this is precisely the point upon which opinions differ. It is almost a bad sign to see financial affairs without interest, and the leading financial journals, the Economist and Statist of to-day in an evident funk about foreign affairs. The Economist seems to have made a weak effort at double-reading, and what distresses it most is not Turkey, or China, or Egypt, or Ashanti, but Venezuela. The paragraph in President Cleveland's Message "re" the Monroe doctrine raises in the mind of your solemn contemporary that bugbear of Englishmen, a war with the United States. It not only means short supplies of gold and of wheat and flour, and very bad imitations of Cheddercheeses, but there is something repulsive to our fraternal instincts in fighting with Johnsons and Thompsons, Thufflebothoms, Rowbothoms and Ramsbottoms. Besides if the United States turn on us, the delenda est Carthago will become a general cry. The jingoes will discover what is meant by the warnings they have frequently received that, great and powerful as we are, our relative position in the world is not what it was. That is the dark side of the outlook. On the other hand we know that the shrewd minds in the American Republic are not all swayed by electioneering devices, and that commercial men in the States will count the cost before they yield to a mere anti-British clamour.

Even our neighbour France, who has nothing to fear from us, even if there were a channel tunnel, has more confidence in Liberal England than in the military despotisms in the East who, if England were crippled, would partition her as they did Poland. We are not alarmed. We have plenty of material to go on with, and if we stand up against the world, before the war is half over there will be a rearrangement of sides. Lord Salisbury's reply to the despatch of the United States Secretary of Foreign Affairs went by the Britannia, which has just arrived. President Cleveland is duck-shooting and cannot yet have seen the British Minister's communication. As for ourselves, we have not the slightest idea what it contains, but we know that with all their gifts, and they are many, Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Salisbury are dangerous men. Without a particle of malice or vulgar prejudice, we are obliged to remember that the whole party now in power are dangerous. They comprise some of the most noble and some of the vulgarest and worst attributes of our race. A Cecil and a Birmingham bagman in conjunction is not a good astrological presage. It means swagger and grab, and might mean first, "trying it on" and then "caving in." In view of foreign politics, it must be confessed the other side, if more moral in its faults, is equally dangerous, and one does not know where to turn for common sense—or more than common sense—wisdom. To-day thousands and thousands of good British families are feating upon the photographs in the Graphic delineating with the unerring truthfulness of the camera the sickening scenes of the massacre of Armenians in Sassun. Mr. Gladstone who—fortunately—has gone to Biarritz, left behind him a sneer at the timid policy of the Government. There will be a general cry in the quiet homes of England for vengeance—or let me say for the proper, the mild and scriptural chastisement of the cruel, nasty and polygamous Turk. He richly deserves chastisement. But, though I am one of these "agin" the Government, I should like to know what Mr. Gladstone or anyone else could do more than Lord Salisbury has done without risks frightful to contemplate. "Never mind risks" say the good and godly. Very well; then I go on to Gamble, Barney Barnato the Liustype and the news of the day, which is not much, and for what there is, please see in the Saturday Review and penny papers. I am conscious there is little to tell you, and you must pardon us if, without fear and trembling and with our hands in our pockets, we are not attending to Argentines or Kaffirs, but to the halo round the moon.

TO THE SALTO GUAYRA ON HORSEBACK.

BY

(P. A. Ercund.)

II

More than a year ago the Matto Grosso Government arranged with the Matte Lerangeira Yerba Company to have all its yerbaies in the Southern part of Matto Grosso explored and utilized, and one of the first things the Company had to do was to open up its southern boundary line, in order to prevent people from the South entering the yerbales and carrying off the yerba. But this southern boundary line is the frontier line between Brazil and Paraguay, which runs by the ledge of the Maracayu Mountain and ends just in the Salto Guayra, and therefore when the boundary line was laid bare and prepared for the passage of horses and cargo, we made at the same time the Road which leads to the Falls. At the present day it is therefore easy for visitors to reach the falls on horseback: the whole Road from Villa Concepcion to the falls is in perfect order and can be passed without any danger even by ladies on horseback. I myself with 5 horses and all my followers, arrived at the falls on the 23rd of October, coming from Villa Concepcion, without any mishap of any kind. That day both horses and men bathed in the waters of the Salto, because it is always easy to find some quiet nook on the coast where the waters enter without any current—I suppose, that when intending visitors to these wonderfull falls know that now they can reach them on horseback, with very little expense and in perfect security, they certainly will come in numbers and keep my road open, which is the chief object of my writing about these falls, since I have got the responsibility for the security of the adjoining yerbales. The easiest Road for visitors from Buenos Aires to the Guayra falls is by Villa Concepcion on the Paraguay river, where steamers will land both passengers and horses. From there to Taquaty and to Panadero there is a pleased cart road and only 2 rivers to pass, the Ipané and the Aguaray Guazu. On the Ipané there is a canoe, and the Aguaray is often passed on horseback without danger, or when the river is high there is a canoe, or if this fails, passengers who cannot swim cross on an oxhide with upturned sides, which affords a very safe boat, as long as the passenger sits quite still and keeps his balance. Panadero is about 50 leagues from Villa Concepcion, and on this road provisions can be had anywhere. After passing Panadero the road winds up the Amambag hills, clad with the most beautiful forests, and passing through them we find ourselves on the Brazilian frontier, which has to be followed to a small settlement called Ipehun, distant 90 leagues from Villa Concepcion. This is the place where Colonel Mansilla went 20 years since, in order to find gold. Now we strike to the North, passing through Brazilian forests, and follow the coast of the River Igatimy to a settlement on the river Mocoy, where provision can be hed in abundance, and where there is maize and grass for the horses. All these roads constantly pass by little brooks or wells, so that neither passengers nor horsss ever feel the want of water, and as to provisions, every one has to bring along what he is in want of, filling up again in these different settlements. But surely one must not expect to find other provisions than just common food, beef and toasted maize.

We now enter the Indian country, where no white men live, and leaving the Igatimy, which is a Brazilian river, strike over towards the Pirahy, which is the first of the Paraguayan rivers falling into the lower Parana below the Guayra falls, but there is nothing to be feared of these Indians, they are very obliging and quiet people, as long as they are not offended. They know a little of the Brazilian language and Guarany, and so it is not difficult to make them understand what one wants. We, who know them, live and sleep amongst them in perfect security, they give us fowls and maize and we give them powder and poncho or linenware and knives or beads. The Chief Cacique is Felix, he was a sargeant before, but we have made him a General now, on condition to keep his tribe well in hand, to chastise robbery, to protect all visitors to these parts, to provide them with food, and to guard them personally with his soldiery against any evil which might befall them, while they are in his territory, and I am certain he will do this faithfully. Nearing the Pirahy, having returned to the Paraguayan side of the frontier, we wade several small streams and pass by several small yerba settlements, belonging to the Industrial Paraguaya, until we make a halt at "Laguna Cai" or at the Rancho "Naranja hay" where this cartroad ends, and where we are not very far off the Parana river. I have left some horses at this last place, which will be fat by this time, and which may come in useful to any visitor who finds that his own horses are in a weak condition, which will easily happen after a ride of 130 leagues.

The cart road ceases now, and a small but steep river is ahead, but I had a good bridge built here, and the passage into the thick dark forest, where branches and brambles and briars soon will divest the passenger of all superfluities, such as golden watch, chain, veil, coat-tails and delicate trousers, may be begun in real earnest, until a resting place is found in the "tolderia" of the Indian sargeant Puy, where Indian life may be studied in its naked reality. This man lives in an opening in the forest, where he has got a very good plantation, plenty of bananas, sweet sugar-cane, maize, mani, sweet potatoes and so on. He is a very trustworthy guide, who knows the forest well, and may be recommended to those who are in want of his services. If he is engaged to show the road to the Guayra Falls, which are now 6 leagues ahead, he will strike right into the middle of the high tropical forest, and at the distance of 2 leagues lead the way to a most interesting Indian settlement; the 'tolderia' Barrero, where the sargeant Benigno lives with his tribe. There is another "cacique" in this "tolderia", but he is ill in bed or in his hammock, with a diseased foot and cannot go about. The Sergeant Benigno happened to be at the Guayra Falls fishing when the Italian Minister Count Antonelli arrived there a month before my visit. He engaged Benigno as his guide and gave him a certificate of which the tribe is very proud, keeping the certificate well enveloped in a "poncho", a shirt and a wooden box. So on this account, I engaged him too, and proceeded, when leaving his "toldos" with with 5 guides or "vaqueanos" ahead, and certain it is we did not lose our road, nor were we ever in want of fresh water or juicy berries or fruit from these forests. One should think that these Indians have some remembrance of last century's Jesuit Mission, because they have a big wooden cross outside their house, and another wooden cross inside on the wall of their room. This is ornamented with fine bird's feathers and painted with various colours.

As I emerged from the forest and came out into the sunny opening, only followed by my assistant, I rode at once to the building where I heard the chanting. There the public chanter, with two men at each side, and a row of women behind, each one with a musical instrument in his hand, was standing in front of the cross and singing loud, accompanied by the company. It was a sort of religious chant, and evidently a religious service, but I could not find out what their ideas on religion were. Though living secluded, very likely without ever having seen a white visitor, they brought us Mandioca, toasted maize and mani, and we spent the night amongst these Indians, the children running to and fro to have a look at us. Meanwhile our horses feasted on such rich grass as they had not tasted for a long time. Visitors who go to the Guayra Falls should not omit to pay a visit to this most interesting Indian settlement; they may see and buy here Indian ornaments, curious bird feathers, bows and arrows, other weapons, skins and live animals of the big forest. Shortly after leaving this "tolderia," and when continuing to cut the road through the forest, we heard the first sounds from the Salto Guayra. We were then about 4 or 5 leagues distant, and we hurried on to reach the falls, but rain set in, and when we came to the river side we were cold and miserable. I went into the Paraná waters at once and found them as warm as a warm bath; so this refreshed us, and the Indians having caught in a few minutes time beautiful fish, mostly "Dorados," we soon had our first supper of fried fish ready and were longing for the views in store for us, and to gaze, astonished, on the marvels of this phenomenon, which nature has prepared at this only spot of our globe.

When we know, that so many thousands of visitors go to see the Niagara Falls, and hardly anyone braves the difficulties to the road to the Guayra Falls, though one can not conceive that a more imposing spectacle, or a sight which impresses the mind more forcibly can be imagined, we cannot but believe that the announcement of a road in existence right to the very falls must change this state of things and induce many people to visit these natural marvels, even if they had been reluctant to brave former difficulties. Two good horses and an expense of a few hundred dollars will bring a practical visitor, more so if he combines with some friends, right from Villa Concepcion to the Guayra Falls and back.

Fiscal to the Matte Larangeira Yerba Company.

INUNDATIONS IN THREE PROVINCES.

The following details have been received with regard to the inundations in Santiago del Estero, Tucuman and Rioja:

Santiago del Estero, 7th—Heavy rains this morning caused the river to overflow its banks The dams also burst with the force of the water, and inundated the surrounding country.

Dr. Aguirre, the Interventor, ordered 60 men of the 3rd infantry regiment to start for the scene of the disaster under Colonel Traga and Lieutenant Colonel Arana. The gallant soldiers worked hard all day. Large trees and rafts were placed across the broken parts of the dams to stop the torrent of water that rushed out. Some of the officers superintending the work had to ride on horseback. The principal dam was built a month ago and cost over $2,000. The chief cause of the inundation was that the earthworks of the Cuarteada Canal burst.

Two thousand men are at present working to prevent any further disaster.

Tucuman, 7th—Heavy rains have inundated several districts. Several valuable properties were damaged in Monteagudo. Part of the earthern works on the Central Cordoba Railway were washed away.

La Rioja, 7th—Tremendous rain began to fall here at 4 o'clock on Sunday and continued for 4 hours, washing away "ranchos", inundating the cellars of warehouses, and doing considerable damage all round. Governor Bustos, aided by the Post Master and a whole gang of workmen, set to work to succour distressed families.

Nearly every house in the city has suffered to some extent. No lives were lost.

NOTES FROM SUIPACHA.

Jan. 5th, 1896.

Several respectable Irish neighbours ("arrendatarios") have lately taken leave of their friends here and in Mercedes and have gone to try their luck at sheep-farming in the district of Chacabuco; and, since camp-rents are said to be some 25 per cent. lower out there than they are in or about Suipacha and Mercedes, there is every hope that these "arrendatarios" will achieve successful results.

I cannot refrain from saying that in recording the decampment of said "arrendatarios" I am influenced by a feeling of awakened hopefulness. At first sight this diction seems like "Ballarat bluff," and entirely out of place. But it is nothing of the kind. Just wait a little. Well, as for several years it has been my pleasant privilege to be personally acquainted with most of the sheepfarmers in the partidos of Mercedes and Suipacha, I think I may, without any vanity whatever, say that I know how the "running-gear" looms in these camps. I know that rack-renters have long been unmercifully scourging their struggling "arrendatarios"; I know that the latter resolved to "grin and bear it" for reasons which I shall not here express; I know, too, that the steps taken by the enterprising "arrendatarios" who have gone to Chacabuco will lead to a reduction of camp rents here and in Mercedes; and, finally, I know that it is more than likely that other "arrendatarios" on these inside camps will ere long follow the good example set them by their enterprising colleagues, by moving to the outside camps of this extensive and fertile province. Here, then, lies the secret of my "feeling of awakened hopefulness".

So far, the camps of this district are good, and the animals thereon are in prime condition.

From 12.30 a.m. till about 3.45 a.m. this morning it rained heavily here.

"Adios! y hasta otro dia!"

THE BUTTER INDUSTRY IN ARGENTINA.

From the Boletin Industrial.

The milk industry in the Argentine Republic to-day is without doubt one of the most flourishing industries in the country. This is almost entirely due to Mr. Vicente L. Casares, one of the wealthiest and best known estancieros in the Republic. Mr. Casares had to upset many obstacles in his way, and finally Argentine butter was introduced into the London and Brazilian markets. The drought which scourged Australia in 1895 turned out to be a benefit for Argentina, as the excellence of the butter produced here called for special attention, followed by an increased demand in the London markets. Mr. Casares's example has borne good fruit, and more than one estanciero now believes his establishment to be incomplete with a dairy. Messrs Goldkuhl and Brostrom, importers of dairy machinery, find it hard to answer all the enquiries for particulars as to the profit to be obtained by Europeans starting a dairy farm in this country.

The largest dairy in this country "La Martona," in Cañuelas, belongs to Mr. Vicente Casares and has three branches, one in Cañuelas, and the others in Tristan Suarez. One thousand three hundred kilos of butter are produced daily, part of this is consumed in the country and the rest abroad. The butter is equal to any made in the best English dairy at home. Argentine butter has now a firm place in London and Brazilian markets.

The "Scandinavia Argentina" is another large establishment, and has three large factories in Jeppener, Guerrero and Gándara, on the Southern Railway. The establishment has also factories in Altamirano, Adela and Genner. 2300 kilos of butter are produced daily, equal to 69 tons per month. Some of this is consumed here and the rest in England, Germany and Brazil. The Company exported 152,561 kilos of butter to London from September 6th to December 31st. The Company is preparing to set up further branches in other parts of the Province of Buenos Aires and expects to be able to produce 6000 kilos a day by April next. A large property has been purchased by this company, in Calle Herrera 1312, where the necessary preparations are being made to store 6000 boxes of butter, equal to about 160,000 kilos.

Another important establishment is that of Mr. Bottazzi, which has five branches, turning out 1000 kilos of butter per diem. Amongst other establishments of a similar class, are those belonging to F. Maton in Altamirano, S. Villanueva in Lezama, Lozano Hnos. and José Bossio in Las Heras, Ackerley in Lujan, Frijoylid in Estacion Rodriguez and Mr. Aguilera in Monte Grande. The butter industry was in a very low way during 1894, but now this state of affairs is changed by Mr. Frederick Stern's firm, which now exports the greater part of Argentine butter, exporting no less than 400 tons during the latter days of 1895. Mr. Stern has made contracts with La Martona, Escandinavia and other establishments for receiving the whole of the butter produced by them. This gentleman is also in touch with the world-wide London firm of Ellis Kislinburg and Co. 3,000,000 pounds of butter passing through their hands. England imports 150,000 tons of butter annually, which represents a sum of £16,000,000, equal to $80,000,000 gold. Mr. Stern expects to be able to export 120 tons of butter per month during the current year, increasing this to 300 tons a month next spring!

SPORT

The following is the Flores A.C's team for their match against the London Bank at Flores, on Sunday, January 12:

Messrs K. Moscrop, G. A. Thomson, E. R. Gifford, W. Huxtable, B. W. Gardom, F. Bennett, R. W. Rudd, B. E. Syer, B. J. Dillon, H. B. Elliott, T. V. M. Knox.

The match will commence on the arrival of the 10.30 a.m. train from the Once.

The Hurlingham Stewards are apparently determined to avert the possibility of being hauled over the coals again, as we see that a programme "subject to alteration" is issued of a meeting to be held "at first available date". It will take crown lawyer wide-wake and spoiling for a quibble to pick a quarrel with this, which we consider the acme of non-commital. Of course it is always well to be on the safe side, especially como hay toros.

The Hipodromo Nacional and the Jockey Club do not seem to be the best of friends either. As the Senior Club appropriated two of the few days that it formerly left open to its colleague, the latter, resenting the slight, announced its intention of closing the course altogether next season. A proceeding that it may have thought likely to achieve some concession from its rival. But no. The Jockey Club took it quite as a matter of course, and with the most cruelly glacial indifference, and on the nail annulled its "classic" programme already drawn up with a view to fitting in the other days now available. There seem to be toros all round.

THEATRES.

The Comedia has had many successes and produced many good pieces, but it is very doubtful if such a excellent programme, as that now presented, has ever been placed before the public in this theatre. The piece "Al fin se casa la Nieves" has already been noticed and it has now reached the 30th representation; but the new piece "Las Zapatillas" is sufficient in itself to fill the house. It goes with a swing from beginning to end, the fun never flags, and the music is first class. Instead of lasting one hour as the section should do, the encores are so numerous that it extends very much beyond that time. Sras. Tomás and Garcia and Sres. Palmada, Tapias and Comerma are capital and better exponents of the piece could not have been chosen.

So many of the best families in town are now visiting Arcadia, that the management has resolved to set apart Thursday as the "Noche de Moda". The same excellent programme that has always proved so successful will be given with occasional novelties. To-night is the first of these evenings and every visitor will be presented with a handsome Japanese fan.

CONGRESS.

DEPUTIES.

The debate on railway-guarantees continued yesterday, or more accurately speaking Deputy Varela delivered on the subject a speech attacking the proposed arrangement, which lasted for 3 hours, the House rising on its conclusion.

The Chamber had previously approved the Internal tax-law in revision from the Senate accepting all the modifications introduced, with the exception of the reductions from 15 to 10 cents on spirits of wine and from $200 $15 on the gross of playing cards.

The committee-report was also laid on the table on the concession asked for by Messrs. Quesada for an electric railway from Buenos Aires to Conchitas.

SENATE.

The discusion of the Budget was continued yesterday, the point reached being the estimates for the Foreign Ministry which were also concluded.

The more important alterations made were the following:

Increase to $200,000 of the subvention in favour of Rioja grants of $10,000, $10,000 & $30,000 respectively to Catamarca, Salta and Rioja for the construction of waterworks: creation of a new post in the Foreign office, the holder to be termed Diplomatic Minister, at $1,000 per month and a salary of 200 gold dollars accorded to the second Secratary of Legation in Rome.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Dr. Jameson (We wish we had our cellar full of his Dublin relative's "dew") was again the man of the day yesterday. He is a free man again, as, instead of hanging him as the Berlin papers so kindly suggested, President Krueger asked him to take pot luck with him and Mrs. K., and then set him free. From the tenour of the telegrams in another column it would appear that the differences between the Boers and Chartered Company are as good as settled. Not so John Bull's account with Germany for her interference in the matter. Nevertheless, the enormous strength of the Flying Squadron which the Admiralty has put in commission can not be directed alone against Germany's feeble navy, but is meant, as the London papers clearly say, as a warning to all Powers to keep their hands off Great Britain's colonial affairs, or it will be worse for them. It is satisfactory to see that the aggressive howl of the German papers is toning down, and they are now trying to explain away Emperor William's telegram as merely an act of courtesy, of no importance. It is a well known fact that when the lion begins to roar all the other beasts of the forest feel nervous. That the warning roar of the British Lion this time is in earnest is proved by the enormous strength of the fleet put in commission, and the krach in Capel Court. In spite of all the shillalaloo, however, a war between England and Germany is most unlikely indeed.

The first Lottery of the New Year was drawn yesterday, and the holders of the following tickets were made happy:—Nº. 7582, $200,000; 12818, 50,000, 8417, 10,000; 12256, 4978, 5,000; 16054, 14103, 17458, 2,000; 22156, 21898, 12837, 10821, 8848, 7450, 3887, 22172, 22615, 1,000; 11735, 32852, 13257, 11079, 6225, 2765, 3088, 16206, 11443, 16991, 21417, 4052, 8703, 5856, 17590, 10417, 21578, 10083, 9345, 5697, 2588 and 18735, 500.

The Rev. J. W. Fleming B. A. has favoured us with a courteous acknowledgement of $316, our donation last year, in free notices etc., to the Scotch Church.

Our Iberian fellow citizens recovered their spirits like a flash of lightning yesterday, as all Tuesday's telegrams about the Havana rebels being at the gates of were flatly contradicted, and Marshal Campos hailed as a conquering hero. It is really impossible to believe either side in this Cuban bobbery. Never since the telegraph was invented has it sent such contradictory news over the world.

The Argentine squadron under Captain Barilari has the Blue Peter flying and will sail to-day at noon for New Gulf. The cruise will last tor 50 days. "Bon voyage."

Do any of our readers believe in ghosts? We don't, yet hypnotism, mesmerism, or spiritualism is so much on the increase in the Plate that we have a veritable ghost story for our readers this morning. At a fashionable dinner party in this city on Tuesday evening, the subject of ghosts and hipnotism having come up, a gentleman who does not believe in ghosts asked permission to tell a real ghost story. The candles on the dining table were, at his request, extinguished, and the magnetic circle of hands formed. He then recounted what many years ago happened to him in Stephen's Green, Dublin, where, when sitting one night in the drawing room reading the Freemans Journal, with his back to the light and to the door leading into the dining room, a lady dressed in deep black swept through the door and went out into the hall through another door. We immediately rang the bell and told the landlady, who with clasped hands told him that it was poor Mrs Featherstone who, a few weeks previously, had died in the little room off the dining room. This extraordinary story produced such an impression on the guests at the dinner-party with the candles out that there was a deathlike stillness in the room and, The beating of their own hearts was all the sound they heard. Suddenly a gentleman of a very nervous temperament, and a prominent director of one of our railways, gave a shout. The lady at the head of the table felt faint, and broke the mystic magnetic circle of hands, lights were called for, and many of the company confessed that they felt half hypnotized. Luckily, there was no medium present. The table moved and all felt the magnetism of the hands.

The "clangor tubarum" is now rolling round the world. In spite of the Pax Multa crusade of our Most Revd. friend Archbishop Casanova, and the sugary utterances of Mr. Guerrero on returning to his native land, Argentina is taking our advice and keeping her powder dry. The National Government has engaged the services of Signor Luigi, a famous Italian engineer, to plan and carry out a complete system of coast defence from the Plate to Magellan Straits. He is to receive £1,200 for travelling expenses and £2,500 a year while engaged in the work.

We have so many Scotchmen in the Plate that we imagine many of our friends will be interested in knowing that according to the last report of the Registrar General for Scotland for 1893 just issued, the population of Bonnie Scotland was 4,093,959, being an increase of 30,570 over the previous year. The report gives curious statistics of the marriages; 1,722 of the bridegrooms and 5,224 of the brides were under 21, eight of the latter being under 15. On the other hand 20 of the husbands and two of the wives were over 70, one of the former a widower stated he was 95, and one of the latter admitting to the mature age of 76 on taking to herself a helpmate. During the year 1248 people in Scotland died of influenza.

Now gentlemen who won the cash prizes for the plans for the new Congress Hall, open your mouths and purses. Government has ordered payment of the amounts, so sail in smiling to pocket them, and then stand a "smile" four friends.

The rumoured epidemic of diphteria in San Luis which occasioned the despatch thithes of the Sanitary Inspector Dr. Arana Celis appears happily have been much less severe that had been supposed. During December only 11 deaths were reported and Dr Arana Celis nero says that only an occasional case occurs so that he proposes to return at once.

If this should meet the eye of Mr. George Gibson, who was some years ago Station Master at Santa Clara on the Rosario Railway, he is requested to write to his brother, Joseph Gibson, 97 Glebe St., Glasgow, who is making inquiries about him.

We most cordially salute our esteemed comtemporary the Argentinisches Tageblatt on the publication of its 2,000th number to-day and hope it may live to publish a couple of millions.

Amongst the many engagements announced is that of Mr. Andrew M. Wilson with Miss Jessie Brown of Lujan. We join their very large circle of friends in wishing them every happiness and prosperity.

Oh! Mr. Bunge, Oh! Mr. Bunge, Oh! The streets, window-panes, foot-passengers, tram-passengers, horses, asses, "et omne hoc genus" call alound to you to mend your ways—road-ways of course we mean. A forcible demonstration of the necessity for such a step was afforded to-day in Calle Lima. A 4 horse-dray laden with wool strayed into one of the many yawning chasms in the road and straightway couped, smashing the window-panes alongside and nearly exterminating several passers-by—at least so says our special authority on naval construction and the Monroe doctrine, who like Brutus, is an honorable man.

A "sugeto" is in trouble for having presented yesterday in the exchange-shop Reconquista 52, various Spanish silver coins which proved to be counterfeit. When arrested subsequently, several other coins of the same spurious quality were found on his person.

Owing to the criticism of the Press, the Chief of Police has decided to replace the motionless statues on horse-back now stationed along Avenida de Mayo at the street-corners, by peripatetic horse-plumed warriors who in pairs will display their horsemanship at the walk and trot between Buen Orden and Entre Rios and Buen Orden and the Plaza Mayo. "Muy bien"—we have no objection.

We have to thank Lord Chancellor Thompson for a most interesting addition to our Museum. The Courier of Saturday Jan. 31 1807—published in London. In its columns we find much about Buenos Aires and the Beresford expedition, but owing to the great pressure on our columns we are compelled to hold over the extracts for a future day.

Kalendars! "The cry is still" they come. Mr. Mortlock sends us one in brown and gold, displaying the austere elegance appropriate in a large stationery establishment. Then Mr. Black, the eminent jeweller and watchmaker, sent us another, all covered with watches and clocks in gold, silver and bronze, a very nice little kalendar indeed. Thanks, gentlemen, both.

Here is an admirable portrait of the Sultan of Turkey, drawn by our distinguished financial colleague the London Economist:—"The most extraordinary and in one way the most perplexing feature in the whole situation is its pivot, the Sultan. The most experienced of diplomatists does not boast that he understands his character or the motives which ultimately govern him. He is said to be the most timid of mankind, but he punishes his own guards with merciless severity, he meets the demands of the Liberal party, which he dreads, with the most determined non possumus and frequent executions, and he practically defies all Europeans as completely as if he were the boldest of men. He is said to be very ignorant, but he certainly understands the secret springs of European diplomacy, and plays off one Power against another with inimitable cunning and with temporary success. He is said to be entirely in the hands of the lowest favourites, but he masters his cabinet, masters his generals, and whenever he pleases masters his dangerous and blood-thirsty mobs. A timid man at the head of a purely military monarchy, a Musulman fanatic who keeps himself up with wine, an absolute sovereign, who will not appoint a decent counsellor, Abd-ul-Hamidi is one of the strangest figures ever described in history. Such monarchs rarely appear except when Empires are falling, and though there is no sign of the fall of Turkey, yet it is difficult to believe that complications so unprecedented can end without a catastrophe of some sort."

The Italians in Abyssinia appear to be getting their pecker up again after their recent defeat, which the public here have lost sight of, thanks to the superior attractions offered in the Transvaal Theatre by those well known actors Emperor William and Dr. Jameson. On the 13th inst General Baratieri intends to make a general advance, at the head of 30,000 men, against Rases Mc Kinnon, O'Leary etc. The 13th is an unlucky date on which to march.

We can now laugh to scorn the craft of our enemies (if we have any), as we have been favoured with that excellent publication the "Guia Kraft for the first quarter of this brand new year, which promises to be so lively in many quarters of the earth. The "Guia" contains innumerable additions and improvements this year, amongst them a splendid map of the Republic, with all the railways valuable legal and commercial data of all kinds, and a mass of generally useful information.

A miserable and probably cracked tram guard has shocked the Catholic world and completely upset His Holiness the Pope by committing suicide in the Basilica of St. Peter's, which has been closed until it is reconsecrated.

Poor Santiago, Tucuman and Rioja! It's all sugar and water and wine and water with them now. The water Fiend has swept through them in a fashion which, we suppose, will necessitate a public subscription and, perhaps, a vote from Congress, like the earthquake vote, to put them on their pins again. See particulars in another column.

The Rev. Dr. Smith, A.M., will preach on Sunday 19th inst. at noon, at the Cabaña, district of Cañuelas.

What about the present address of Professor Anderson which we asked for a week ago? We are very anxious to forward him the letter from his wife which she sent us from Valparaiso.

We thank the Rev. Dr. Smith, A.M. for the very kind receipt he has given us for notices and advertizements during 1895. Creeds and sects apart, we look on the venerable divine as the "doyen" of the Church Militant in the River Plate, and it could not have a better one.

A shocking suicide took place on Tuesday in the Gran Hotel Central in Rosario, where the guests were suddenly startled by a thud in the patio that shook the house. On rushing out they found Mr. Santiago Rios, a gentleman well known in business circles, lying with his brains dashed out. He had mounted to the roof of the building and taken a header into the patio. The tragic affair caused a tremendous commotion in the hotel and vicinity.

If any of our subscribers feel nervous during the "caso sospechoso" season, they may extract comfort for mind and body from the following cholera preventive published in a Calcutta paper in the year 1880:—"Dr. Darsemberg, official investigator of Paris, recommends a solution of 7½ grains citric acid, to a quart of water as a simple safeguard against cholera. This he states absolutely destroys the bacillus of cholera. If the strength of the solution is raised to 14 grains to a quart it will destroy the bacillus of typhoid. A pleasautdrink of the above can be made by adding a little sugar, and essence of lemon." The kind subscriber who has favoured us with the foregoing tells us that during his residence of some years in India, the value of the above was repeatedly brought to his notice.

The New Year's Number of the Semana Rural is a bucolic poem, and more, as it is full of beautiful illustrations, amongst them one of "Old Plaza Victoria"; but the artist has made a most tremendous mistake in putting a tram-car in the picture!! Lord bless us! There was no such vehicle to be seen in the "old" Plaza in the happy and simple days when we knew it first. The picture of the lady crossing May Avenue is admirable; but, to our mind, the pick of the basket is a roaring drunken spree in a patrician palace in old Rome on New Year's Day. The Monks of the Screw in old Dublin were mere wine-negus topers compared with the ancient Romans, who never cried stop till all the guests, male and female, were sprawling on the marble floor, as shown in the picture.

Mr. Fosterjohn. Manager of the Sailors' Home, has favoured us with a kind acknowledgment of the free space in our columns given to that institution last year.

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, January 8th 1896.
Gold Premium.

FIRST RING 230.90%
SECOND RING..... 231.30%

There was a gentle rise in the gold premium this morning and a slight spurt in the speculation. A lot of cash gold was thrown on the ring and was absorbed as fast as it was supplied. Meantime, the stiff contango continued for end of the month.

The news of fresh purchases of cruisers and iron-clads from the Italian navy yards is much commented on in the hall, and the general impression is that such heavy expenditure must affect the march of the gold market. It is understood that through the kind offices of the Italian Government Argentina will have two more armored cruisers, more powerful than the Garibaldi, and which will probably cost seven to eight millions of dollars. How the Argentine Government will manage to meet all these expenses is a puzzle, and our Financial Sphinx must be sorely perplexed.

Another formidable item of expenditure will be the construction of a naval port at Bahia Blanca; an enterprise of this kind must run into millions sterling. Add to this the completion of the Madero Port works, the two graving docks of the North Basin, and sundry other constructions and one may well enquire—where is the money to pay for all this? Or has the Argentine Government launched a big loan "sub rosa" of which we know nothing? It would be absurd to suppose that the Government is launching into such enormous expenditure without any idea as to how funds have to be provided for same. There must be something going on in the "coulisses" of the Finance office, but the market is kept in the dark.

About four hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands for cash at the first ring; the premium opened at 230.30%, rose to 231%, and closed hard at 230.90%. A small business was done for the end of the month; the premium opened at 233%, rose to 233.50%, and closed at 233%. Seventy thousand dollars were sold for the end of February; the premium opened at 235%, rose to 236%, and closed at 235.50%. The turn-over in gold this morning amounted to eight hundred thousand dollars. The market closed with a firm tendency all round.

Business in stocks and shares was limited to a few Cedulas. National F opened at 80 and closed at 79.50. La Plata Cedulas fell to 17.20 closing at 17.40.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

To-day's telegrams from London announced in their usual, dull and dismal tenor another fall in the price of Funding Loan. These daily cables have announced so many successive falls in the stock that it is consoling to think that it still manages to hold out at 72. But apart from the fall in Funding Bonds, the news becomes serious when we read of another incipient krach in South African mines and a general fall in all securities whether state bonds or railway shares. According to this evening's messages the feeling in Capel Court and on the Paris Bourse is one of intense distrust owing to the threatening state of relations between England and Germany. All this news produced an unco.nfortable feeling on 'Change and makes people very cautious. All this helps to keep up the gold premium and render business difficult. The times are out of joint not only in the Old World but in the New.

48 5/16 to 48⅜ d. on London.
5.09½ to 5.10 fcs. on France.
5.10 ¼ to 5.11 fcs. on Belgium.
4.13 ¼ mks. on Germany.

Paper money continued in steady demand. Discounts were quoted at 7½% to 8% for paper and 7% for gold bills.

Captain Joshua Slocum, the gallant skipper of the Spray, was warmly welcomed on 'Change to-day. All the brokers, consignees. and "barraqueros" took the greatest interest in questioning him on his dangerous cruise. But the gallant skipper can well exclaim "pejora passi" since he conducted the far-famed Destroyer from the States to Pernambuco during the Brazilian rebellion; half the voyage was done under water, and Captain Slocum wrote a most interesting description of the trip, which has appeared in bookform as well as in the columns of the American papers.

A pest in the lambs which first made its appearance last year and was responsible for heavy mortality in the flocks has reappeared at Magdalena, over 200 lambs on Mr. J. A. Browu's estancia being affected. There does not seem to have been any diagnosis made yet of this disease or disorder, but it seems quite time that the Prov. Vet. College took it in hand before it spreads.

In Pehuajó things are very prosperous and promising, cattle and camps in grand order, the maize fields splendid and wheat turning out 18 fanegas to the hectare. There has been a suspicion of frost, which although out of season has done a world of good.

At Rio Cuarto there is a municipal unpleasantness similar to that flourishing at Las Flores. The neighbours are not in cordial accord with the Corporation about a whacking increase in the taxes, and there is a local schism, which may shew vigorous development later on.

The La Plata Railway station is again in danger, as we see that Messrs. Rojas and Co. contractors, who sued the Government for recovery of sum due on foot of work effected on the first section of the Southern drainage scheme, have got their verdict and we suppose will now immediately distrain to realize. The Las Flores mayor may fancy seizing carts, but in La Plata nothing is ever thought of except the station, and we expect before the Provincial Government gets affluent this railway station will hold the world's record in this line.

The Rural Show era is dawning. Saladillo sets the ball rolling on 26th inst. According to prospects held out, the affair promises to be a brilliant one.

Captain Shand, who has just arrived from his estancia in Entre Rios, was welcomed on Change to-day: he leaves on Saturday in the Danube for England home and beauty.

Capt. W. V. Young of the s.s. Tandil was also welcomed to-day. He is a regular trader with the River Plate and brought out coal this trip, consigned to Messrs Huergo and Co. The Captain cannot say when he will clear, owing to the strike which has knocked everything topsy-turvy and R. Plate fashion.

Mr. Edward Casey, who has arrived back in the Danube with his family, was warmly welcomed to-day, also Mr. Kennedy, English Minister to Chile who arrived in same steamer and will cross the Cordillera. Mr. Frias of the firm of Frias Bros. of Rio and 180,000 gold profiles of Queen Victoria for the London and German Banks which arrived up in the afternoon. All were cordially welcomed. The Danube had a rough bout in the Bay of Biscay and later on an attempted invasion of Yellow Jack, which were the only incidents of note.

The gold market ruled dull and stiff at the second ring. The Diario with its array of sensational telegrams from Europe went from hand to hand, and the Bolsa Meternichs drew up plans of campaign and treaties of alliance. Meantime, in the midst of all the hub-bub no telegrams announced any change in the money rate in London. One hundred and fifty thousand gold dollars were sold for to-morrow: the premium opened at 230.80% rose slowly and steadily, and closed at 231.30%. Seventy thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month, the premim closiug at 233½ %. The rate for end of February closed at 236%, National Cedulas F fell to 79, La Plata Cedulas to 17.20.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring:—

$ 153.000 January 9th at 330.80--70-331-331.20-331-331.10-20-30-20-30
$ 68,000 January 31st at 333-333-50.
$ 38,000 January 11th at 330.80-331-331 20-30.
$ 1,800 January 10th at 331.
$ 46,000 January 15th at 331.30-50-80--50-80-332.

Mr. Samuel S. Hardy, auctioneer, who had carriage of sale of the Provincial Government farm lots in Balcarce, reports having disposed of 54 chacras measuring 1288 hectareas 99 areas for $97,591.74 m/n, the price obtained per hectaree varied between $62 and 120, or an average of $76 per hectaree. No less than 53 lots remained unsold, which the auctioneer attributes to the high reserve fixed by the Government.

Messrs. Erausquin and Co. have lately made a large purchase of export novillos from Sr. Pedro Laborde, of Rio Cuarto. The firm will part nine hundred head, from a lot of 913, which Sr. Laborde has fattening, at a price of $80 each. The novillos to be delivered and paid for within a month.

We have alluded frequently to the absolute inevitability of some means being tried to tame or subdue the naturally high spirits of steers intended for export, so as to make handling them without taking out a Prevenida policy a possibility. With the export trade assuming such important proportions this was a self-evident necessity and we are glad to see rhat Mr. Langley, the well known estanciero of Bragado, has taken up the matter in a practical way, experimenting successfully with a lot of five hundred novillos at his estancio, San Emilio. The oattle have been dishorned, and are fed daily in the "potreros" with a few kilos of maize in the cob, and have become so tame now that they crowd round their feeders and try to take the grain from the baskets in which it is being carried. Naturally these animals will require less handling and shew a better result at the end of either journey or voyage, besides relieving the crews of the steamers of the necessity of being eternally on the "prepare to receive cavalry" order. Mr. Langley's lead will have to bo followed by all the estancieros who lay themselves out for the export trade.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

It sales in maize and wheat were brisk, the condition of our markets was counterbalanced by the dullness in wool centres. Until we see gold firm, we may not expect to see any important transactions done. The limits from Europe, owing to the fall in that quarter, are very restrained, however good fine parcels find plenty of buyers, who, if they do not pay the previous prices, go very close on them: the fall in the prices only represents a few cents, this is due greatly to the decline of combed wool in Europe, still this does not affect our markets as much as the strike, which has thrown all shipping business into the clouds. There is a great cry to-day that estancieros are killing off the calves, in order that the cows should fatten quicker; a false basis to work on; in a couple of years if this process continues we shall find that the number of our cattle will be far below that of previous years; it strikes us as peculiar that tarmers should apply to these means for fattening, as the past rains must have given extra strength to the young grass. The arrivals in produce, especially in wool, are very large, whereas on the other side sales are very small; altogether the artistas did not invest in over 300,000 kilos, the parcels sold were all picked ones; the greater part on hand is deficient and finds very little outlet.

The markets are as full as they can be, and probably in a few days we shall hear that the principal deposit and markets will have to close their doors to all produce.

Wheat and maize have not been able to rush the markets; the aarivals both here and in La Plata are far too great for our for our deposits.

The storage in La Plata is quite unable to meet the waggons that are daily arriving with maize, if there were vessels enough to load the lots this would not be felt so much; in the meantime while waiting for steamers, the maize is exposed tn the inclemency of the weather,

A few lots of new wheat were despatched to-day, a parcel from Vedia, good barletta, consigned to Messrs E. Saenz and Co. was sold at 6.80 for "consumo"; another lot which arrived by the Rural Tramway was sold at 6.40. Old wheat was sold pretty freely for consumo; 6,000 bags barletta, on board, changed hands at 7.30 the 100 kilos.

Yellow maize closed firm and with great demand. several sales were made at 3, 3.10 and 3.20, inferior classes were sold at 2.50 and 2.70. Exporters are still paying 2.50 and 2.80 for morocho maize. For new oats the demand is steady. The consignatarios, Messrs C. Mansilla sold 1,100 bales of new hay for export, at 30 dollars the 1,000 kilos, this is one of the highest prices paid for this article.

Animation is still as absent as ever in Montevideo; the demand and prices have fallen, in wheat 2,000 bags from San José were sold at $2.00 and another 2,350 do from Canelones, new wheat at 1,95, some other small parcels were sold, but the prices paid were very low. In maize a small operation for Brazil of 2,000 bags was made at 95 cents the 62 kilos.

In reference to saladeros, we hear that in Concordia, three firms are buying largely from establishment of Mr. J. Mendizco; the transactions are kept under reserve, but the price is generally considered to be 10 dollars gold; in Gualeguay saladeristas are paying 36 paper or 11.30 gold.

The killing during the month of December in Liebeg's was 12,350 head, the figures in comparison with other years are small, but one must take into consideration that the demand this year for jerked beef is very limited, as our consuming markets have quite sufficient on hand for some months.

The wool markets have no aspect of changing; sales are comparatively small; no operations were reported in the barracas; in the station and other deposits the following was sold: 10,000 kilos from Salto at 2.25, 15,000 do from Durazno at 2.40 and 2.50, the other sales were some 28,000 kilos at prices varying from 2.05 to 2'70 the 10 kilos.

"The bright, moving picture of the country's trade, commerce and production on the opening year consoles us with the conviction that its future is superior to human error and independent of individual influence."

The above lines, quoted from THE STANDARD of 3rd inst., are the true expression of our sentiments respecting the present position and expected future of the country, if we are to judge from what has occurred to us, as a minute fraction in its common wealth, during the year that has expired, and the hopeful advent of the new ene on which we have entered.

If we take our branch of trade, and instance our business in particular, we have to admit that the prospects as regards the country at large are not at all exaggerated in the transcript we have made us of, as the increase in our concern has been beyond our most sanguine expectations during the old year, and, on the eve of the new one, promise is given of a very satisfactory augmentation.

To keep pace, therefore, with this hopeful state of affairs we have made amp e provision, and our stock, which is always kept in adequate supply, will be periodically increased with every novelty to meet the increasing requirements of the year.

The Norwegian full-rigged ship Nordenskojold bound from Cardiff for this port with coal to Wilson Sons and Co, is aground on the English Bank. Three of Lussich's tugs have gone to her aid and Mr. Arentzen of the Norwegian Insurance Company also left to-day for the scene of the accident.

The strike among the dock-labourers still continues both here and in the La Plata port, delaying in some cases the departure of vessels amongst them the Sud America which should leave to-morrow.

The Rio Paraguay is falling notably: in the Tacumbu reach there are only 8¾ feet of water. Tucumbu reaches lies near Asuncion in front of the Cerro Lambaré and if the fall continue the river steamers bound for the Paraguay capital will have to tranship at Angostura.

The followins ss. should leave to-morrow: Edendale for Havre. Corsica do., Nethergate for Saint Vincent for orders and Maria Elise for Rosario. The Matteo Bruzzo should also leave to-morrow as she was unable to do so to-day.

The waters of the Upper Paraná have also fallen very much and the Pingo on the Corrientes-Posada route drawing 5¾ feet has had to be replaced by the Lucero drawing only 4 feet.

The German ss Crefeld began to-day in the roads to discharge her cargo into lighters.

For the moment she will only discharge what was consigned to Montevideo and which will be taken down in 2 large launches of the Mihanovich flotilla, special permission having been obtained to discharge them on the moles.

The Galileo it appears is not attempting to discharge her cargo; but on the contrary is endeavouring to load as quickly as the strike permit, previous to leaving for New York.

The Gartland steamer Tiempo has been chartered to convey five hundred head of cattle to Brazil at the rate of 2£ stg. per head.

KEATING'S

LOZENGES.

KEATING'S LOZENGES.

KEATING'S LOZENGES.

"A Simple Fact about" KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES. Ask through the world, in any country that can be named, you will find them largely sold. There is absolutely no remedy that is so speedy in giving relief, so certain to cure and yet the most delicate can take them.

"A TERRIBLE COUGH."

"A TERRIBLE COUGH."

"94 Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12.

"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly. J. HILL,

UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

The above speaks for itself. From stric inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Keating's Cough Lozenges is under stated. The operation was a specially severe one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. I. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

WEIGHT IN GOLD.

WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Under date Sept. 8th. 1891, Mr. Hill again writes:—"I should long since have been dead but for your Lozenges—they are worth their weigh in go ld. I will gladly see and tell anyonewhat a splendid cough remedy they are."

Keating's Cough Lozenges, the unrivalled remedy for Coughs, Hoarseness, and Throat Troubles, are sold in Tins and Bottles by all Chemists.
